CANON - CONSECRATION

This is the most solemn part of the Mass. All is quiet as we witness the renewal of Christ's sacrifice on calvary made present in an unbloody manner. Bells are rung as Father elevates the Host and the Chalice.

Bells are rung as Father prepares to receive Communion. The priest genuflects, elevates a Particle of the Host, turns toward the people and says,

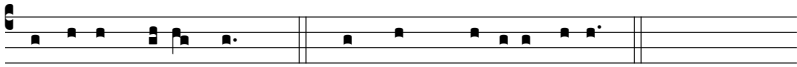

P. Ecce Agnus Dei, ecce qui tollit peccata mundi. Behold the Lamb of God who takest away the sins of the world

The ministers and people say together three times:

R̄. Domine, non sum dignus, ut intres sub tectum meum, sed tantum dic verbo et sanabitur anima mea. Lord I am not worthy to have you under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.
